

Embed Uberpong's new custom ping pong paddle editor on your website!

Uberpong partnered with the movie Ping Pong Summer (starring Susan Sarandon and Judah Friedlander) and they embedded our custom paddle editor on their website.

- Partner with a fast growing, cool ping pong brand that has already worked with Red Bull, Coca-Cola and Nike.
- Allow your customers and clients to create their own custom paddles through your website.
- Choose to keep one side of the paddle with your branding on.
- Offer a unique gift or promotional tool that allows your clientele to play ping pong with style.
- Viral nature of the product enables social media sharing which ensures your brand gets more exposure.
- Earn royalties and revenue for every paddle you sell

Technical Requirements

Adding the Uberpong custom paddle editor on your site is easy to sync with most e-commerce platforms.

- For full integration your site must have an existing working ecommerce cart and webhook capabilities
- Access to development resources may be required to embed and configure your store for cart integration
- Smallest functional dimensions are 1170 x 670. Your site must have at minimum this amount of space to embed properly

*Editor can be embedded on any website. However, implementation process and possibilities must be determined on a case by case basis depending on your ecommerce store
